Michael O'Loughlin

Rohan Tobler-Williams

The two business partners established MRG in 2023. MRG stands for The Michael and Rohan Group.

They are driven by a common goal to create education, employment and training opportunities for First Nations people, and provide real generational wealth for families and communities.

From secondary school and job entry, all the way to Board Level and business ownership, MRG is making progress right across Australia with more than 1000 Indigenous people benefiting from their commercial and community endeavours.
